To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

BEAR CAUGHT.—Sylvester Carpenter trapped a bear in Lowell last Wednesday weighing 127 lbs. He dragged the rap some fifty rods, when the clog caught so as to hold him fast.

ARM BROKEN.—A son of Wm. H. Pollard, of Burlington, was thrown from his horse on Pearl Street, on Tuesday, and received, in consequence, a broken arm. He is doing well, the Burlington Times says.

ST. VITUS CURED.—Dr. Crabtree is permitted to refer to the cure of Miss Mary Davis, of Alburgh Springs, of St. Vitus Dance. She had it five years, and was extremely bad; her features were distorted, and her whole nervous system seemed wrecked by the disease. She was in town to-day, and is perfectly well. Dr. C. is at the Welden House, and those afflicted by any Chronic Disease should consult him.

BAD CUT.—The Newport Express says on the 26th ult., while Dr. George A. Hinman of Holland was cutting bushes he accidentally struck the axe into his leg just below the knee severing two arteries and the nerve. His boy, about six years old, was with him and immediately started for help, but before assistance arrived he had fainted, and came near bleeding to death.

MASONIC.—At the Annual Convocation of Burlington Chapter No. 3 Royal Arch Masons, held at Masons' Hall, Burlington, the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year:

M. E. Homer M. Phelps, High Priest.

E. Henry N. Newell, King.

E. Ormond Cole, Scribe.

Comp. Louis H. Turk, Captain of the Host.

Comp. E. E. Greenleaf, Principal Souter.

Comp. Daniel C. Barber, Treasurer.

Guy B. Davis, Secretary.

Wm. Brinsmaid, Royal Arch.

Comp. B. Turk, Master of the Third Vail.

Comp. Frank Jubell, Master of the Second Vail.

Comp. Geo. H. Bigelow, Master of the First Vail.

Comp. Wm. Brinsmaid, Steward.

Jas. Urquhart.

Jas. Urquhart, Sentinel and Tyler.

VAN AMBURGH & CO.'S MENAGERIE.—This stupendous collection of all that is rare and curious in the kingdom of beasts and birds, and which is, beyond all cavil, the largest ever originated by individual enterprise, will be in St. Albans on Saturday of this week. There is so much that is moral, and singular, and curious, in this exhibition that it would transcend the limits of a newspaper paragraph to speak of it in detail, or to attempt to mention even one half of the living curiosities of its collection. There is really no other legitimate menagerie in the country, and none but what are obliged to eke out their paltry exhibition with circus or gymnastic entertainments in order that the public may feel that they have not been completely humbugged and swindled out of their money. With this there is no need of any extraneous aid. With an army of men, and horses enough to fill all the barns in the town, a procession a mile in length, with cages all filled with rare living animals, the attractions they offer are not only so multifarious, but of so standard a character that their success over all competitors is a matter of surprise to no one. The Scriptural Paintings on their chariots, vans, and cages are spoken of as being very beautiful, and as forming, when on parade, a grand free panorama of the Holy Bible. The Menagerie will enter St. Albans in a grand procession about nine o'clock on the morning of Exhibition.

The Agricultural Fair at Shelton.

We trust the citizens of Franklin County will not forget the annual County Fair which is to be held next week at Shelton. The premium lists have been largely increased and a new building 26 feet by 52 will be completed in season for use. The Society has been greatly improved in its organization by the division into classified departments under the charge of superintendents who have the care and arrangement of animals and articles designed for exhibition.

The Fair is established on the right basis. If the inhabitants of the several towns will second the efforts of the officers and managers, there is no reason why Franklin County can not excel any county in the State.

All should take an active interest in the coming Fair, and contribute towards the Exhibition. The Fair will then be a success.

CITIZENS' PURSE.—A grand trotting-match for a purse of $400 will come off on the Fair grounds on Saturday next, at 2 p. m. It is expected that several fast trotters will contend for the purse, and it promises to be the best trot ever held in the State. If the weather is pleasant, there must be a large attendance, as many of those attending the Fair, who are interested in all that concerns the turf, field, and farm, will undoubtedly remain to see the sport. The affair is in good hands, and the managers have arranged that the race begins promptly on time, so that persons from abroad can leave town by boat or cars the same evening. The half-price tickets issued for the State Fair will be good until Saturday evening.—Burlington Times.

GRAND CELEBRATION.—A celebration on the summit of Jay Peak comes off next Monday. Among the attractions of the occasion are an oration, suited to the event, at 2 o'clock P. M.; rolling down the mountain that enormous rock estimated to weigh 68 tons; music by the Newport Band; an excellent dinner at the Log House, and a visit to the newly discovered White Sulphur Springs. A rare opportunity to visit the mountain is thus offered all, and those who go will be fully paid for their trouble.—Newport Express.

FRANKLIN COUNTY FAIR.—The Annual Fair of the Franklin County Agricultural and Mechanical Society will be held at Shelton on Wednesday, the 16th, Thursday, the 17th, and Friday, the 18th days of September, inst. The address is set down in the pamphlet of the Society to be delivered on the last day, but we are informed by the President of the Society (Hon. John Gregory Smith) that a different arrangement has been made, and that the address will be given on Thursday, the 17th, at 11 o'clock a. m., by President Angell, of the University of Vermont.

News and Miscellaneous Items.

Baron Flotow, author of the opera of Martha, has married his cousin, Rosa de Flotow.

An autograph letter of Washington to Henry Laurens, sold for about $50 in London recently.

French agents are reported to be buying large quantities of grain throughout Italy for account of the French Government.

An Oregon paper offers as an explanation of the sentence, "S. T.—1860—X," the following: "Democracy, the 8—ame T—hing as in 1860, X—actly."

Petches, the French actor, who plays in London in English, is shortly to appear at a Paris theatre, and the critics are wondering if his French will now show a British accent.

Gen. Vanderveer, of Hamilton, Ohio, a prominent Democrat, announces that as he has not supported Vallandigham since the inauguration of the war, he will not support him now.

Ex-Gov. Bramlette, of Kentucky, went over into Indiana to help the Democrats in their distress, but his first speech closed his engagement. The Kentucky style was not agreeable to the loyal men of Indiana.

After the exposure contained in the speeches and letters of Hampton, Forrest, Vance, Preston, Reed, Long, and Col. Brown, little more remains to be said concerning the inner workings of the Tammany Convention.

Samuel W. Le—ngwell, Esq., has severed his connection with the Lebanon (Ohio) Patriot, a Democratic organ, in consequence of the nomination of Mr. Vallandigham, who, he claims, was forced upon the Democracy by the trickery of his particular friends.

FULTON MARKET.—Just received, a nice lot of Dried Beef, Sugar Cured Hams, Bologna Sausage, Sweet Potatoes, Tomatoes, Peas, Peaches, Water Melons and Musk Melons. dt594.

The palm of superiority is awarded to Mrs. S. A. Allen for her Improved (new style) Hair Restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle,) and a grateful public appreciates the very low price, One Dollar. Every Drugist sells it. dtw.

Every family needs to keep in the house something that will cure headache, toothache, ague pains, lumbago, bruises, cramps, and other kinds of pain and suffering, and what is there so good as Reine's Pain-Killing Magic Oil.

A STARTLING TRUTH.—Thousands die annually from neglected coughs and colds, which soon ripen into consumption or other equally fatal diseases of the lungs; when, by the timely use of a single bottle of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, their lives could have been preserved to a green old age.

THE DIFFERENCE.—One of the chief points of difference between civilized and barbarous mankind is the attention given to the natural covering for the head—the one being carefully cut, cleaned, and brushed, and the other allowed to remain dirty and unkempt. The use of "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" will ensure all that could be desired by civilization or ignored by barbarism.—Boston Post. dtw.

BOSTON MARKET, Sep. 8.

Flour.—The Flour market has been quite dull the past week and prices have risen off, although we notice a steeper feeling at the close. Jobbers are purchasing only in small lots as wanted, but as prices are now comparatively low, the margin is against Western millers, and buyers are not disposed to make further concessions. The sales have been at $7.50 a 8 for Western Superior; $8.25 a 9 for common extra; $9.50 a 10.50 for medium extra; up to $11.40 for bakers' brands; $11.50 a 13 for White Wheat Michigan, Ohio and Indiana. The latter are extreme figure, very good brands Michigan selling at $12 a barrel. Illinois Flour has been in moderate demand at $12 a 14, and St. Louis at $12 a 13 per barrel, including very choice brands at the latter rate. Southern Flour is quiet at $12 a 14, including family brands Richmond at $12 a 13; Lawrence Mills at $10.50 a 11.50; and Boston city $10 a 15 per barrel. Corn Meal has been in fair demand at $6.12 a 6.25 per barrel.

Grain.—The market for grain is quite firm, with a steady but moderate demand for the trade. The sales of Southern and Western wheat have been at $1.35 a 1.37; and Western mixed at $1.28 a 1.32 per bushel, including a fair and choice lots. Oats are firmer, most of the poor lots having been bought up. The sales have been at 76 a 80 per bushel, including Western and Northern. In Rye the sales have been limited to small lots, at $1.50 a 1.70 per bushel. Corn is selling at $2 a 3; Fine Feed $3.50 a 4; and Middlings are scarce and prices are nominal.

Provisions.—The market for Pork is firm and prices have advanced. The sales have been at $24 a 25 for extra prime; $23.50 a 24 for medium; and $23 a 24 for good. The demand has been limited. Sales at $10 a 15 for pork mess; $18 a 21 for good mess; $21 a 23 for extra mess; and $23 a 26 for family. Lard is firm and has advanced with a better demand. Sales at 20 a 22 a lb. for family and better rendered. Standard lard has been in fair demand at 18 a 20 for Western and Boston and 21 a 22 for fancy Western. Dressed Hogs are selling at 13 a 14 a lb. lb.

Produce.—The market for choice butter is firm as the article is still quite scarce, but there is a fair supply of other grades. The sales of New York and Vermont dairies have been at 40 a 42 for good and choice, some strictly choice lots at an advance on the latter rate; and common and fair from 36 a 38 a lb. as to quality. No Canada or Western of any consequence in market and prices are nominally 36 a 40 a lb. Cheese is a shade easier and has been in moderate demand. The sales have been at 13 a 14 a lb. for family and better rendered. Butter is in fair demand at 18 a 20 for Western and Boston and 21 a 22 for fancy Western. Dressed Hogs are selling at 13 a 14 a lb. lb.
